Toomer Avenue, formerly Elm Avenue was created and celebrated during the summer of 2000. Join us on Friday, July 24th and Saturday 25th, 2015 for the 15th Annual Toomer Avenue Banquet and Block Party.

TailoredToomers: Friday

Grab your gear and get ready for the Toomer Family Formal Banquet. We will take Backdrop photos, honor 15 family members age 75 and above, view a family history presentation, and play Family Feud.

ToomerBlockParty: Saturday

The Toomer Family welcomes family, friends and the community to join us for a #ToomerAve15 Block Party in East Berlin on Saturday, July 25, 2015 from 12 – 3 PM. Come to enjoy a variety of entertainment and light refreshments – ALL FREE.

Why Toomer Avenue?

Way back when, during the beginning of the last century, the Toomer Family moved to Elm Avenue, East Berlin, NJ in 1926. Henry and Berth Walker Toomer and their families built homes and raised large families. Their contribution to the community through businesses, entertainment, education, and athletics brought recognition to Berlin Township. Most notably the establishment of Tippin Inn owned by James Toomer, which attracted top entertainers of the 60s and 70s, and the selection of Ron Dayne Jr. as winner of the Heisman Trophy in 1999.

Decades before Selma and long before BB King performed at Tippin Inn, Toomer Family members stood up against the segregation of the Berlin Annex, also known as the Community School, during the late 1940s and 1950s.
